Erga Literarium

Erga Literarium, For Literature, is the Literary Club of ICFAI Law School, Hyderabad. It is in charge of all college and student activities directed towards the growth of literature and its multiple facets.

The Club is credited with holding various intra-college events such as open mics, poetry hour(s), debates and social media sessions among others.

It also runs the official student magazine which is a bi-monthly publication involving contributions from the students of the law school. This event will be the Club's Second National Fest since its inception.

The First National Literary Fest was organised on 10th and 11th of April, 2021. There were participants from 20 different colleges who participated in around 07 different competitions. A total of Rupees 30,000 was distributed in cash prizes. The Club now brings to you the 2nd National Literary Fest to honor and celebrate Literature.

The Literary Fest

Erga Literarium - For Literature, the Literary Club of ICFAI Law School, Hyderabad, presents its 2nd National Literary Fest, 'Erga Literarium - For Literature' which shall be held on 31st March & 1st April, 2023.

It involves two exciting days with a host of enthralling events lined up. Being the youngest of hosts in this arena, among our peers, we hope to create a niche for ourselves while expecting healthy competition.

Eligibility

Eligibility for the 2nd Edition of the National Literary Fest includes students of all educational backgrounds, aged between 18 - 35 years and enrolled in various UG programs from recognized Colleges and Universities across the country.
