ABOUT THE COURSE

This intensive course delves into investor-state dispute settlement (ISDS) in international investment law, emphasizing arbitration's role in resolving investment disputes and its effects on substantive standards and host states' regulatory rights. It critically examines arbitral jurisprudence, addressing concerns from scholars, policymakers, and developing country governments. The course also explores recent trends in investment treaty making and reform initiatives tackling these concerns.

TOPICS TO BE COVERED

- International Investment Law – Recent Dynamics and Concerns
- Investment Treaty Arbitration (ITA) – Jurisdiction and Applicable Law
- State Responsibility, Counterclaims and Defences
- Damages, Compensation and Other Remedies
- Review, Recognition, Enforcement and Execution of Awards
- Reforming the ISDS System

Certificate shall be given subject to successful completion of course requirements
