ABOUT NLIU

The National Law Institute University, Bhopal was established in 1997, with the objective of affording quality legal education to its students. It is recognised by the University Grants Commission and the Bar Council of India.

NLIU aims to contribute to national development by instilling a sense of responsibility among its students, while simultaneously cultivating spirit of intellectual freedom and legal curiosity, which is essential to the development of the country.

NLIU-LAC

The NLIU - Legal Aid Clinic (“LAC”), driven by the ethos of Article 39A of the Indian Constitution, has been established under the aegis of the National Legal Services Authority.

It is a student-run initiative, which aims to provide free legal aid to the marginalized sections of the society. Our aim is to provide pro bono legal representation and advice to the weak and downtrodden sections of the society.

We also organise various legal literacy workshops and training programs to spread legal awareness and further the cause of legal literacy.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

The objective of the competition is to spread legal awareness through social media on the various pertinent socio-legal issues that affect the public at large. Through the interactive and creative lens of social media, the goal of the videos will be to initiate conversations on the spheres of life that interact with law to further the cause of legal literacy and foster a more informed and empowered society.

The short videos can be on any legal awareness topic. It can be something as simple as “what to do when you are stopped by traffic police?” or “what to do when your landlord is kicking you out?”. The aim is to make legal awareness more easily accessible through digital avenues.
