CONSTITUTIONAL LAW STUDIES AND ORIENTATION COMMITTEE

The Constitutional Law Studies and Orientation Committee (CLSOC) is devoted towards enduring the legacy of organizing activities that entail exploring realms of Constitutional law with its interpretation and engaging in discussions on contemporary Constitutional law issues. CLSOC looks forward to staying dedicated to its aims, objectives and organization of various discussion forums, essay competitions, quizzes, and seminars. CLSOC has partnered with external organisations too, in order and conduct various competitions for the awareness of constitutional values. In light of the same, the committee is set to proudly conduct the 'National Video Making Competition', a fun and educational event open to the attendance of all individuals.
