ABOUT SCHOOL OF LAW, UPES

UPES, Dehradun, founded in 2003, is one of the top-ranking universities in India and offers multiple courses and specializations. With a wide variety of constituent colleges, including business, law, engineering, and design, the university has expanded over the years. The university has been accredited with a grade of "A" by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council, Government of India, in 2021 and strives to achieve more heights in the coming years.

The School of Law, a wing of UPES, envisions an assemblage of specialist legal professionals able to contribute to an increasingly diverse field wherein courses involve energy law, corporate law, cyber law, banking, finance, disruptive technology, and intellectual property rights' specialisation.

It has been ranked 21st among law schools in India by the National Institutional Ranking Framework in 2021 and was also ranked among the Top 10 Private Law colleges in India by India Today and was recently ranked Third best Law School in North Zone by BW Legal World.

ABOUT THE ADR ASSOCIATION

The Alternate Dispute Resolution Association of the School of Law, UPES is constituted with the purpose to facilitate and promote ADR mechanisms and develop and enhance the required skills among the students. The ADRA is steadfast in its commitment to multifaceted objectives. Primarily, we endeavour to champion the use of ADR methods such as mediation, arbitration, and negotiation by providing a platform for Alternate Dispute Resolution events all over India.

To accomplish this, we conduct workshops, training sessions, and competitions at both intra-university and national levels, fostering a dynamic learning environment. Moreover, we actively organize practice mediation, negotiation, client counselling and arbitration sessions, providing students with tangible experiences to hone their ADR skills. Together, these initiatives form the cornerstone of our mission to cultivate adept professionals and contribute meaningfully to the realm of Alternate Dispute Resolution.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

The Alternate Dispute Resolution Association (ADR Association) at the School of Law, UPES, is dedicated to advancing alternative dispute resolution mechanisms and recognizes the pivotal role of client counselling in a lawyer's journey.

The School of Law at UPES takes immense pride to announce the upcoming IXth Edition of this prestigious event, where 24 teams will compete for the winning title by qualifying for the Finals, adhering to the guidelines.

The competition promises to serve as a premier stage to recognize and portray the practical skills of advocacy of participants from various law schools across the country. With collaborations with prominent law firms and chambers and the best of those in the legal profession in India, UPES Dehradun, through this Competition, promises to provide a glorious experience. Our goal is to positively influence the quality of ADR procedures and promote the global expansion of ADR culture.

All pertinent criteria for participation are comprehensively outlined below ensuring a fair and rigorous evaluation process. We look forward to the participation of enthusiastic teams and the success of yet another edition of the National Client Counselling Competition.
