ABOUT GCWCR

The GNLU Centre for Women and Child Rights is Centre for Excellence established under the aegis of Gujarat National Law University. The Centre has partnered with Ministry of Women and Child Development, Govt of India; National Commission for Protection of Child Rights, New Delhi; Gender Resource Centre, Govt of Gujarat among others to provide extensive research and policy inputs. The Centre also produces student-led research in the areas of Section of 12(1)(c) of Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009, School Mergers and Surrogacy Laws. As a part of the student-led advocacy for awareness regarding cervical cancer, the Centre submitted a representation to the Minister of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India, on September 1, 2023 urging the Ministry to include HPV vaccines in the Universal Immunization Programme. The Ministry acknowledged and considered these concerns, in a letter dated October 20, 2023.

RTE CONCLAVE 2022

With over a decade since the RTE Act was enacted in India, new issues have emerged in its interface with society and its evolution in the current context. The RTE Conclave 2022, in collaboration with the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR), the Government of India, and Indus Action, was a first-of-a-kind conference that brought together academicians, students, practitioners, activists, and policymakers to work towards the effective implementation of the RTE Act, both in essence and spirit.

RTE CONCLAVE 2.0

RTE Conclave 2.0 envisages to create a platform to develop sustainable relationships between stakeholders in the legal fraternity to collaborate on developing better clinical interventions towards advancing the cause of right to education in India.

By bringing together a diverse array of stakeholders including academicians, legal practitioners, policymakers, faculty and student convenors of university-led legal aid clinics and research centres, youth-led non-profit organisations, student researchers, this Conclave seeks to delve into creating a platform for relationship building among various stakeholders to promote collaborative research, clinical interventions and policy interventions in the field of right to education in India.

The Conclave shall comprise:

Panel Discussions
by experts on themes on access to justice in education

Pitch Presentations
proposing solutions to some of the most complex issues pertaining to education

Experiential learning through community building and network opportunities for participants

GUIDELINES

WHAT WE EXPECT FROM THE PITCH PRESENTATION

As a part of the pitch presentation, we welcome ideas to solve some of the biggest challenges in education from a diverse audience spanning practitioners, activists, academicians, policymakers, civil society, students from law and interdisciplinary subjects in form of a concept note of 800-1200 words. Legal aid cells, child rights centers, social work departments, education researchers, nonprofit leaders, movement-builders, concerned government officials, journalists, faculty convenors, and motivated individuals across disciplines are encouraged to participate in this solution-oriented gathering aimed at cultivating deeper coordination across stakeholders to advance the RTE cause. We welcome submissions both in institutional capacity (submissions as a Research Centre or a Legal Aid Committee) as well as individual capacity.

THEMES FOR PITCH PRESENTATION

- Role of lawyers and law students towards solving challenges in ensuring access to quality education in public schools in India
- Understanding the future of rights-based litigation in addressing violations of Right to Education in India
- Role of media towards addressing violations of Right to Education
- Need for community building in Universities towards advocating for Right to Education
- Mapping Law Universities as a stakeholder in addressing access to justice issues pertaining to Right to Education
- Reimagining legal education to equip law students towards identifying challenges in implementation of Right to Education in India and addressing the same
